

Comfort Systems USA Reports Second Quarter 2012 Results

August 1, 2012

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 1, 2012-- Comfort Systems USA, Inc. (NYSE: FIX), a leading provider of commercial, industrial and institutional heating, ventilation and air conditioning ("HVAC") services, today announced net income attributable to Comfort Systems USA of $4,468,000 or $0.12 per diluted share, for the quarter ended June 30, 2012, as compared to net income attributable to Comfort Systems USA of $3,162,000 or $0.08 per diluted share, for the quarter ended June 30, 2011. The Company reported revenue of $354,750,000 in the current quarter. On a same-store basis, the Company reported revenue of $330,930,000, as compared to $312,148,000 in 2011. The Company also reported positive free cash flow of $2,641,000 in the current quarter, as compared to negative $5,787,000 in the second quarter of 2011. Backlog as of June 30, 2012 was $617,712,000 as compared to $621,987,000 as of March 31, 2012. On a same-store basis, backlog was $563,565,000 as of June 30, 2012 as compared to $621,162,000 as of June 30, 2011.

Brian Lane, Comfort Systems USA's Chief Executive Officer, said, "During the second quarter our companies achieved improved profitability in a tough environment. Our construction and service operations continued to focus on execution. Our improved earnings and positive cash flow in the quarter are the result of the commitment and performance of our excellent workforce."

The Company reported net income attributable to Comfort Systems USA for the six months ended June 30, 2012 of $3,439,000 or $0.09 per diluted share as compared to a net loss attributable to Comfort Systems USA of $2,008,000 or $0.05 per diluted share in the first six months of 2011. The Company also reported revenue of $684,160,000 for the first six months of 2012. On a same store basis, the Company reported revenue of $638,258,000 as compared to $594,207,000 for the same period in 2011. Free cash flow for the six months ended June 30, 2012 was negative $18,849,000 as compared to negative free cash flow of $26,966,000 in the first six months of 2011.

Mr. Lane concluded, "Conditions remain challenging across the vast majority of our markets, especially in the continuing weak demand for new buildings. Despite these conditions, we expect positive cash performance and solid profitability as 2012 progresses. We continue to invest and we are positioned to perform when our markets strengthen."

Certain statements and information in this press release may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "plan," "intend," "foresee," "should," "would," could," or other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, which are generally not historic in nature. These forward-looking statements are based on the current expectations and beliefs of Comfort Systems USA, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") concerning future developments and their effect on the Company. While the Company's management believes that these forward-looking statements are reasonable as and when made, there can be no assurance that future developments affecting the Company will be those that it anticipates. All comments concerning the Company's expectations for future revenues and operating results are based on the Company's forecasts for its existing operations and do not include the potential impact of any future acquisitions. The Company's forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties (some of which are beyond the Company's control) and assumptions that could cause actual future results to differ materially from the Company's historical experience and its present expectations or projections. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forwardlooking statements include, but are not limited to: the use of incorrect estimates for bidding a fixed-price contract; undertaking contractual commitments that exceed the Company's labor resources; failing to perform contractual obligations efficiently enough to maintain profitability; national or regional weakness in construction activity and economic conditions; financial difficulties affecting projects, vendors, customers, or subcontractors; the Company's backlog failing to translate into actual revenue or profits; difficulty in obtaining or increased costs associated with bonding and insurance; impairment to goodwill; errors in the Company's percentage-of-completion method of accounting; the result of competition in the Company's markets; the Company's decentralized management structure; material failure to comply with varying state and local laws, regulations or requirements; debarment from bidding on or performing government contracts; shortages of labor and specialty building materials; retention of key management; seasonal fluctuations in the demand for HVAC systems; the imposition of past and future liability from environmental, safety, and health regulations including the inherent risk associated with self-insurance; adverse litigation results; and other risks detailed in our reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

For additional information regarding known material factors that could cause the Company's results to differ from its projected results, please see its filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements after the date they are made, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

Note 1: The Company defines adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("Adjusted EBITDA") as net income (loss), excluding discontinued operation, income taxes, other (income) expense, interest expense, net, gain on sale of assets, goodwill impairment and depreciation and amortization. Other companies may define Adjusted EBITDA differently. Adjusted EBITDA is presented because it is a financial measure that is frequently requested by third parties. However, Adjusted EBITDA is not considered under generally accepted accounting principles as a primary measure of an entity's financial results, and accordingly, Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered an alternative to operating income (loss), net income (loss), or cash flows as determined under generally accepted accounting principles and as reported by the Company.
