Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 16, 2007, the Company announced that its Board of Directors (the "Board") has approved an extension of its stock repurchase program to cover an additional 401,200 shares of the Company's currently outstanding common stock. The Company's existing stock repurchase program had previously authorized the repurchase of up to one million shares of the Company's outstanding common stock. Through November 13, 2007, the Company had repurchased 401,200 shares of the Company's common stock at an aggregate price of $5,523,770. This extension of the stock repurchase program will permit the Company to repurchase up to an additional one million shares of its currently outstanding common stock beyond what had already been repurchased as of November 13, 2007.

The share repurchases will be made from time to time at the Company's discretion in the open market or privately negotiated transactions as permitted by securities laws and other legal requirements, and subject to market conditions and other factors. The Company expects that the share repurchases will be financed with available cash. The Board may modify, suspend, extend or terminate the program at any time.

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current plans and expectations of Comfort Systems USA, Inc. and involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual future activities and results of operations to be materially different from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ include, among others, national or regional weakness in non-residential construction activity, difficulty in obtaining or increased costs associated with bonding, shortages of labor and specialty building materials, the use of incorrect estimates for bidding a fixed price contract, undertaking contractual commitments that exceed our labor resources, retention of key management, the Company's backlog failing to translate into actual revenue or profits, errors in the Company's percentage of completion method of accounting, the result of competition in the Company's markets, seasonal fluctuations in the demand for HVAC systems, the imposition of past and future liability from environmental, safety, and health regulations including the inherent risk associated with self-insurance, adverse litigation results and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ are discussed under “Item 1A. Company Risk Factors” in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this release. Comfort Systems USA, Inc. expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statement contained herein to reflect any change in Comfort Systems USA, Inc.'s expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.
